

Artist in Residence:

Let's Write!

Featuring Elizabeth Skenes Millen, founder of Pink Magazine

Are you an aspiring writer? Would you like to hone your craft? Mark your calendar for this free, in-depth, 4-week workshop series held at the Hilton Head Branch Library featuring local author and publisher Elizabeth Skenes Millen, founder of Pink Magazine.

Interactive Writing Workshops

Let's Write!

Wednesday, January 25, 2023 | 10am - noon
Practice writing with drills that get your writing mojo going. Home in on skills and overcome fears of getting it wrong.

Chip Off That Writer's Block!

Wednesday, February 1 | 10am - noon
Chip off that writer's block! What to do when you're stuck? Learn about writing from your head vs. writing from your heart.

Get Emotional Over It!

Wednesday, February 8 | 10am - noon
Are you ready to get real with your writing? Learn how to add emotion to your writing.

Writers Don't Ramble!

Wednesday, February 15 | 10am - noon
Learn how to write without rambling. Dive into editing, succinctness, flow of thoughts, and word counts.

Space for workshops is limited. To register, call the Hilton Head Branch Library at 843.255.6525.

The artist will hold library office hours for questions, help, and ideas by appointment only following Wednesday workshops from 12:15pm - 2:00pm and Thursdays (1/26, 2/2, 2/16) from 11:00am - 1:00pm.

All events take place at the Hilton Head Branch Library
11 Beach City Road, Hilton Head.

This program is made possible thanks to a grant from the Public Library Foundation of Beaufort County.

